Mr. Chetan Mittal, Member, CoA

We are deeply saddened by the unfortunate accident which has taken away D. Vishwa, one of the finest table tennis players of the country from amidst us. Keeping in view his outstanding contribution to the game of table tennis at both the National and International level, this Committee resolves that a trophy for the most promising player of the year who is below 20 years of age based on his/her performance over the calendar year shall be initiated to be awarded at every Senior National Championship commencing from the 83rd Senior National Championships being held at Shillong, Meghalaya.

The trophy shall be titled as "D Vishwa Trophy for the Most Promising Player of the Year" shall be awarded to a player who is below 20 years of age playing in the Senior Nationals Championships premised on the players' performance over the calendar year.
